Letters to the Editor/The News of Cumber...

To the Editor:

My husband and I were very excited about purchasing a beautiful new home in the Four Seasons age-restricted development on Buckshutem Road.

We put a deposit down and afterwards heard some of the noise from the raceway. I then did some on-line research which I shared with my husband. Now he wants to withdraw our deposit and forget the deal.

We are concerned about quality-of-life issues as well as diminishing property values due to noise pollution. Who wants to hear race track racket from dawn to dusk each weekend? Both of us were looking forward to taking advantage of the arts and glass district as well as various restaurants and activities in the area. Now we will not be able to do so.

We aren't the only home buyers whose reservations involving the raceway are deterring them from purchasing a home in your area. In fact, when we visited Four Seasons last week, we overheard another couple speaking of these same concerns.

We thought it would be a location that offered peace and tranquility. My disappointment is tremendous.
